A most distressing accident happened in the vicinity of West Providence, about 3 miles from Rockport last Saturday morning, at the residence of Mr. Louis Burton. Mrs. Burton had gone out of the residence on an errand and left her eight-months-old baby in a little chair near the fire with another child a little older as an attendant. Soon after she left the honee she heard the children crying, but did not apprehend any serious trouble. Upon returning shortly afterwards she found that her baby had fallen with its head in the fire and was frightfully burned. The older at eight o'clock Saturday night.
